On Friday afternoon of the LWML MN South District Convention, President Lisa Kamrath recognized all those registered for the convention that were babies or small children when the LWML was formed in Chicago in 1942. There were 12 ladies registered and in attendance. Among them was Eunice Bremer from St. John's. Each lady was presented a yellow rose corsage by one of the Young Women Representatives.

LWML National Mission Grant No. 17 during the 2023-2025 biennium was Worship Anew: Nurturing Faith for the Aging. Earlier in June, LWML Executive Director Deaconess Kim Tromblay and LWML Communication Coordinator Eva Koeller met with Worship Anew at their office in Fort Wayne, Indiana. During their visit, they let LWML use their recording studio to record new Mustard Seed Daily Devotions and something new that you'll see starting in July. Stay tuned!
