On Wednesday night the Ladies Aid met sorting and packing clothes that will be taken to the Orphan Grain Train. They got a lot done and will finish packing when they get more boxes.

One of their next big projects will be packing layettes. This is done on the second Wednesday night of September each year instead of having a regular meeting. Items that will be needed for that project are onsies, sleepers, receiving blankets, blankets and 2 packs of plastic pants. Sometimes these items can be found at garage sales in good condition. Otherwise they are purchased.
