Since it is fast approaching the Advent/Christmas season, the Board of Education (Dawn Hardel, Barb Hardel, Melissa Hardel) will once again be collecting donations for the "Christmas Bags" for the Children's Program and decorations.

The Garms Family is coming to Centennial Lutheran Church, Henderson on Thursday, December 3rd at 7 p.m. for their 7th Annual Advent Concert. The doors will open at 5:00 p.m. A delightful array of hors d'oeuvres, Christmas treats, and beautiful seasonal displays will highlight a Festive Celebration. A free will offering will be collected to benefit the Garms Family ministry of sharing God's Word through song and Scripture across the country.

December 6, 2026 will be the date that Mark Hawker, "Hick with a Pick", will be joining us for worship. After the worship service we will have a Christmas Pot-Luck Brunch. Everyone is invited to join in the fun. Bring your friends and families for a wonderful Christmas experience.

We are getting ready for the Arli-Dazzle parade. Watch for an announcement on when the handout bags will be filled and when to be at the parade if you are helping with that.

There is a large decorated box in the entry to collect items for Phil's Friends. Phil's Friends sends care packages and cards to cancer patients. These are adult items only! All items need to be new, unused and unscented because our friends with cancer have compromised immune systems. Lists of items needed are attached to the box and the bulletin board.

"An Everlasting Light" will be the theme on Advent Mid-Week Worship being held at Peace Lutheran Church on Wednesday nights December 2, 9 and 16. A soup supper will be held at 5:30 p.m. Worship, led by confirmation youth from Henderson, Green Isle and Arlington, will be at 6:30 p.m.

A Christmas Tree Stroll will take place at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Green Isle, December 11-13. Friday 4 – 8 p.m., Saturday 9:30 a.m. – 7 p.m., Sunday 10 am – 1 pm Free Will Offering, All proceeds to go to Sibley County Food Share Program. Refreshments will be served.
